

I fully support RM-10782. Morse code testing has hindered the amateur radio service by discouraging new licensees. New radio operators are needed to serve their communities and country during times of disaster by providing emergency communication. Thank you.

Kevin Arnold
KD5RHF